Route 22

Shania Gracia

Mazda

A young woman with long dark hair is leaning out of the open rear window of a light-colored car. She is wearing a floral patterned top and gold hoop earrings. Her arms are crossed, and she is looking directly at the camera with a slight smile. The background is a blurred landscape of green fields and trees, suggesting a rural or countryside setting.

I keep on dreaming over and over of a place that isn't here

I could
no longer wait
for the season
that would never change

*If
spring were never to come,
where will the flower
of my heart
bloom?*

The place I'm headed
for is eternity.
I'll get there
someday,
won't I?
